Dear Brent:

Now that events in my life have slowed down significantly, I would like to reflect upon the past eight or so months leading up to the successful sale of my company, Wichita Burner, Inc.

This letter of appreciation for your efforts as commercial broker for all phases of this transfer of ownership comes easily for me.

Throughout the many dozens of communications we had, you brought a sincere forthright down-to-earth approach to the process. . . . and, always in a timely manner. I especially appreciated the fact that you treated all questions with a high degree of respect and always diligently supplied answers; and that includes those from the ultimate buyer,

Generally speaking, the sale/purchase went quite smoothly. Thank you again, Brent, and be assured that I would gladly serve as a positive reference for any of your future clients should you so desire.

Sincerely,

Robert H. Oliver
